1st September 2016Sub: Information under the RTI Act

Sir,

You are requested to provide the following information under the RTI Act from the office of the Defence Secretary, from the AFT Cell and from Military establishments:

- (a) Please inform whether the Defence Secretary or the office of the Defence Secretary, being a part of the Selection Committee related to Selection of Armed Forces Tribunal (AFT) Members, has received any requests through letters/personal letters/official letters/DO letters from serving and retired defence officers seeking appointment or recommendations for the posts of Administrative Members of AFT, if yes, then please provide a copy of all such requests/letters received in the past two years.
- (b) Please inform whether the Selection Committee has recommended the names for appointments of Judicial and Administrative Members of the AFT, alongwith the total number of all such names recommended and the current status of pendency of the file related to their appointments.
- (c) Please inform whether the AG's Branch/DV Directorate or any other branch of the Army HQ or any other Military establishment has attached or made available serving Army personnel with Administrative Members of the AFT at any Bench for purposes of use at the AFT or at their residence or for any other use, and if yes, then please provide a copy of the authority letter or the govt rule under which such military personnel can be made available for use of Administrative Members of the AFT or the AFT. Please also provide details and copies of the requests received from any such Administrative Member or the AFT for making available to them the services of military personnel.
- (d) Please inform whether any Military Command or any military unit or establishment has provided manpower/buddies/sahayaks etc or any other facility to any Administrative or other Member of the AFT, and if yes, then please provide a copy of the authority under which the same has been done.

I am enclosing a fee of Rs 10 as RTI fee. Please feel free in informing me if any extra fee is required.

Thanking You

Chanan Singh
